RP faces OIC rejection anew

By James R. Kelly

MANILA (UPI)—It is as the deadline looms ahead for the historic American peace treaty to the Organization of Islamic Cooperation, Secretary of State James A. Baker III has vowed to reject a resolution that would allow Islamic countries to force other states to accept Islam.

The official, who added that he is the president, announced the rejection of the resolution at the UN, near Washington, Wednesday.

But he said such resolutions were already dead with his first year of secretary general service in Washington through rejection of the resolution in 1991.

Rejection of the resolution, said a UN spokesman, would allow UN to take a stand against such UN resolutions.

The resolution was introduced by the Islamic Conference of Ministers of Foreign Affairs, which was held in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, last week.

Kings trip Aces

ALASKA'S Ali Peak (right) passes off Ginebra's Erik Monk.

APRIL 2004-CHINA

By Jane Murawo

NEVER mind if he's one of the most error-prone players of the conference. Tur-raye Braggs can definitely deliver the goods for Barangay Ginebra when the need arises.

Braggs pulled out a thrilling 80-73 win over the Alaska Aces at the start of the PBA Fiesta Conference quarterfinals last night at the Araneta Coliseum.

Braggs, who averages five turnovers per game, scored on a pair of timely incursions down the stretch that defused a desperate rally by the Aces, who fumbled in their next four possessions with the Gin Kings leading at 76-71.

Given a chance to go for a higher quotient in case of a three-way tie at the end of the quarterfinals, coach Eliot Tanquicoen opted for time with only 2.7 ticks in a bid to increase the lead at the final buzzer.

"I must apologize to coach Tim (Cone) for calling a timeout. I want to get a better quotient just in case we ended up in a tie," said Tanquicoen.

The Gin Kings will meet the University of British Columbia Thunder before wrapping up their stint against the Coca-Cola Tigers, teams which Tanquicoen feels are prolific as far as ball movement and fast-break plays are concerned.

The scores:

GINEBRA 80—Braggs 23, Monk 18, Halilberova 14, Santos 10, Salasman 7, Capuno 6, Adducci 2, Valenzuela 0, Ochoa-Sanchez 0, Sergio 0.

ALASKA 73—Young 21, Cobley 10, Peak 11, Carter 10, Arago 7, Arago 6, Deal 2, Thors 1, Wilson 0, Farn 0.

Quarter: 21-25, 30-41, 42-57, 60-73.

RP team leaves Aug. 7

THE PHILIPPINE contingent to the Athens Olympics is leaving for Greece on Aug. 7.

Chief of mission Steve Hontiveros said the only remaining minor problem is finding a flight that can accommodate the six of 13 athletes, who have so far qualified, and a handful of officials.

With the four boxers and the three taekwondo jins going to Athens straight from their respective international tune-up tournaments, the rest of the athletes and officials will be flying in six days before the Olympiad formally begins.

Hontiveros said the RP contingent is choosing between taking Air France and Thai Airways. If they take the Air France flight, the delegation will have to stay one night in Paris because of an 18-hour wait. Via Thai Airways, the athletes and coaches will have to stop over in Bangkok for eight hours.

Boxers Chris Cerna, Romeo Brito, Violan Payla and Harry Tabamor and jins Donald Goiter, Tibornlee Go and Ma. Antonette Rivero are the country's main hopes to end its Olympic gold medal drought.

The other Olympic bats are Jarrin Figueroa in archery, Jeshro Dionisio in shooting, Miguel Molina and Miguel Mendoza in swimming and Eduardo Buenavies and Lerna Bulantian-Galano in athletics. Marc Anthony Raym

Lady Stags, Archers clash today

DARWIN TERRY (Luzon Gym)

3 p.m. — San Sebastian vs La Salle

6 p.m. — Lakan vs FEU

LOSING a setter in volleyball is like losing a point guard in basketball.

That's why coach Rogelio Gonsyeh and the San Sebastian Lady Stags are in a quandary going into their match against resurgents De La Salle today in the Shakey's V-League volleyball tournament at the Lyceum Gym.

Ma. Elena Mayo, the Lady Stags' starting playmaker, has measles since last week and missed SSC's last game against solo leader University of Santo Tomas, which carries a 4-0 win-loss slate.

She is again a doubtful starter in the 3 p.m. game against the Lady Archers, where the winner could take solo second place. Both teams have 2-1 record.

Lakan aims for the elusive second win when it takes on winless Far Eastern University at 5 p.m. Trina Ibarie

There is a considerable body of research on issues of female sexual harassment in the workplace. This literature has been largely concerned with the impact of sexual harassment on the victim's psychological well-being. The present study is a contribution to this literature by examining the impact of sexual harassment on the victim's physical health. The study found that victims of sexual harassment experience a range of physical health problems, including headaches, stomach problems, and sleep problems. These findings suggest that sexual harassment is not only a psychological issue, but also a physical one. This has implications for the way in which sexual harassment is dealt with in the workplace. It suggests that employers should take steps to ensure that victims of sexual harassment are able to access appropriate medical and psychological support.

The next week, 1991, we received a telephone call from a woman who said she was interested in the program. We met with her and her husband, and they decided to enroll in the program. They are now in their second year of the program and are doing very well.

A Singaporean bread has risen from Singapore that has just opened its first branch in Manila is giving a whole new meaning to eating bread.

"BreadTalk is now giving life to bread," says Francis Goh, group general manager. "It's all about creating a new life for bread by looking for something new."

He and his 10 brothers, George Quak, group managing director,
